How to attend an on line “zoom” meetings during the crises

To attend on line meetings you will need to use ZOOM which is a free Internet product.

Please note that there are subtle difference between computers, tablets and phones as well as Apple and Android products. You may occasionally have to look around the screen for a button that was placed in a different spot.

Most important . . . YOU CAN DO THIS!

Step 1 - Download And Install The Software (First Time Users Only),

You do not need to create a Zoom account. You just need to install the software on your device.

Hint: Do this before your first zoom session.

For Computers <https://zoom.us/download>

For Smartphones/Tablets Apple: <https://apps.apple.com/us/app/id546505307>

Android: <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=us.zoom.videomeetings>

Step 2 - Join The Zoom Meeting By Clicking “Join the Meeting” using the ID Number the OG sends you in the invitation email. We do not require a password.

Note to first timers: Your device will ask permission to allow Zoom to access your Camera and Microphone. You need to choose OK/Allow/Yes or whatever affirmative choice you are given. Allowing Zoom to send reminders is optional.

Note to everyone: There can be variation in wording and the order depending upon your device type.

Step 3 - You're at the Meeting, What Now?

The person talking will automatically show up on screen. For this reason it is important to remember to hit the MUTE button at the bottom if you want to talk to anyone else in your room and you don't want the group to hear it. Use the CHAT feature to type messages to the group. This is a useful way to share information such as emails and questions to the moderator. When you press the CHAT button a white box opens and at the bottom of that box you can type your comments.

CHANGES TO THE WEBSITE

ALAN STERN
WEBMASTER

1. The following pages will not appear on the website until we resume actual meetings at the Ethical Culture.

- Calendar
- Message Center
- Minutes
- Publications

Information normally found on these pages will be found on the LATEST NEWS PAGE.

2. There are instructions on the top of the home page (in red) telling you where to go for information updates, technical support, member news blasts, and schedule of events, etc.

3. The website is still being worked on at this point.

4. I am still trying to add some pages for jokes, inspirational messages. If you have other suggestions, please let me know. ALL CURRENT INFORMATION WILL BE ACCESSED THROUGH THE LATEST PAGE BUTTON.

If you have any questions about the above changes feel free to contact me. web.ogwestchester@gmail.com

ANNIVERSARIES: Freida and Mort Gann, 34
RETURNS FROM ILLNESS: -Glen Gordon

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

-Bob Dougherty noted that: A. John Goldfarb's wife, Susan, passed away.

B. The show at the Westchester Broadway Theatre had to be cancelled. Refunds will be made.

-Alan Stern noted that communications are important, especially at this time. He mentioned three means of communication:

A. phone is fast and personal, but only two can communicate at once

B. website has information for all. He is making some changes:

1. the calendar has been removed.
2. a new page, Latest News, has been added. It will contain most recent information on members and important news
3. tech support and Senior Moments will be added.

C. Facebook gives information to everyone signed up for the OG page. To get on, sign up for Facebook then "friend" Dave Finch. Dave will then invite you to the OG page.

Bob Dougherty noted that:

- Steve Auerbach will try to have the Speaker Program on Zoom. Probably not at the same time as the regular meetings.

- Frank Alpert will try to arrange for Timely Topics to be held on Zoom.

- the Investment Cub could also meet on Zoom. Dates and times of Zoom events should be coordinated with Alan Stern, to prevent conflicts.

- Rich Jackel reported that Rich Ronde is feeling much better. He was discharged from Burke Rehab.

- Bob Dougherty told a humorous story, compliments of Julie Cohan.

Respectfully submitted,

Harold Selden
Secretary

"MY PARENTS USE TO SAY ..."

RECOLLECTIONS OF WALT SCHWARTZ

Thoughts my Mother used to say:

"Better it should go to my waste," when referring to food left on our plates after a meal.

"A bargain at half the price," when referring either to something that wasn't a bargain at all, or something that was such a big bargain that it would even be a bargain if it weren't already marked down to half its regular price.

"They'll say I ate it anyway," when referring to some food that she didn't want to finish but she felt it should not be left uneaten.

"Call me anything, but just don't call me late for dinner," when reminding us to be home on time for supper.

"I have to sleep fast," when heading off to bed late and knowing she didn't have her regular sleeping hours ahead of her.

Thoughts my Father used to say:

"I'd be all right if I weren't half left," when jokingly commenting that something might or might not be correct or all right.

"Next week at two o'clock," meaning we'll meet again or do something sometime in the future.

"Holy Toledo!" meaning something unbelievable, used by others outside our family, but maybe more often within our family because we lived on the other side of Ohio, in Cleveland.
