WH 6-4296

277 Chatterton Parkway, White Plains, New York

Dear Sir:

It is proposed by Merrill Requa, Andrew Ross and Robert W. Henderson of White Plains, and Fred F. Bayer and William E. Leigh of Scarsdale, to form in White Plains an organization of retired and semi-retired business and professional men, to meet weekly at the Y.M.C.A.

The purpose of this organization would be: To cultivate good fellowship, to renew old friendships and to form new ones; to preserve mental alertness, to foster deeper interests in the Community, and to devise ways and means to be more helpful.

It will be non-sectarian, non-political. No initiation fees. Dues probably two dollars annually.

The organization meeting will be held at the Y.M.C.A. in White Plains, on Tuesday September 14th, at 10:30 a.m.

You are invited to join the group, and to bring with you to this first meeting any friend you think may be interested.

Cordially,

Robert W. Henderson

From Ed Hardy: "While cleaning out my files, I found a copy of the above letter. Robert Henderson, a retired New York Public Library librarian, sent this letter to a group of friends and contacts to meet for an organizational meeting which evolved into the Old Guard".

Actively seeking new articles. Articles, photos and poems can be e-mailed to the editor, mholstein@optonline.net

POETRY CORNER

"Unmasked"

I make no resistance to some form of social distance,
So whenever I walk out, I try hard not to pout,
I deem it no great task to wear a facial mask,
I think it most unwise not to find the right disguise,
I cover up my nose as I strike a friendly pose,
I cover up my mouth as I venture north or south,
I try to wear a smile every time I walk awhile,
I know I must stay safe and cannot become chafe,
Beneath my great guise, I know I'm obliged to be wise.

Numbers

It's not against death that I continually rage.

It's against numbers that define old age.

When I was younger time passed slow,

Now that I'm older it just seems to go.

But that is not the worst of all,

Not one of my numbers seems to fall.

Whether measured by calendar or scale,

Larger longer numbers always prevail

My car's odometer is going up,

As are readings on my blood pressure cup.

My triglycerides, my insurance rate

And my weight - day by day they escalate.

I asked my young doctor to stop my craze,
Help me quit running this fruitless maze.
He said numbers shouldn't bother me at all.
-That's fine to say when your numbers are small.
Oh, it's against life's numbers that I fend
Though it's a rattrap maze without an end.
