Over 90 Luncheon held on September 12

President Gene Kava and Past-President Julie Cohan enjoy a laugh with our "Over 90" members.

Sixteen members of The Old Guard who have reached the age of 90 or more shared a luncheon immediately following the September 12 meeting held at the Ethical Culture Society in White Plains.

In a long-standing tradition, sponsored in perpetuity by Past President Norton Dunn, members over that special number in age receive a free lunch. This year attendees enjoyed sandwiches, soda and cherry Danish especially procured for the event by its organizer, Mort Genn. The oldest member attending was none other than Arthur Howard who is 101 years old. We wish all of our attendees the best in the coming year and look forward to celebrating with them again in 2018! More photos on page 2 and the web site!

Sarah White enraptures Old Guard at Sept 12 Meeting

Sarah receives the special Old Guard clock from President Gene Kava.

Sarah Bracey White, author of "Primary Lessons a Memoir," spoke to the Old Guard just before the Over 90's Luncheon. Sarah, who was transplanted to in single-parent home in the Jim Crow south at five years old, told a heart-warming and emotional story of growing up and overcoming adversity. Sarah was born in Sumter, South Carolina.
